CERTIFICATE OF REHABILITATION

Penal Code §§4852.01 - 4853

DISCLAIMER: This information is provided only as a guide and is based on court process for Santa Cruz County. Nothing in this packet is intended as legal advice. It is your responsibility to verify that you are filing the right forms for your situation and following local procedure. If your case is in a different county, you will need to determine how the process is handled in that county. We make no guarantees about the success of your case or the correctness of the information provided herein.

WHAT IS A CERTIFICATE OF REHABILITATION?

A Certificate of Rehabilitation (“COR”) is a California court-order declaring that a person previously convicted of a felony and or certain misdemeanors has lived an upright, honest life, and is now rehabilitated. The purpose of the COR is to restore civil and political rights of citizenship to ex-felons who have proved their rehabilitation.

Basic information on the Certificate of Rehabilitation and Pardon process is online at <https://www.cdcr.ca.gov/bph/clemency/> and <https://www.gov.ca.gov/pardons/>

WHO QUALIFIES?

Generally, someone is eligible if they have a conviction on their record of:

- A felony or
- A felony sex offense listed in Penal Code 290 AND the conviction has been expunged, or
- A misdemeanor sex offense listed in Penal Code 290 AND the conviction has been expunged.

Additionally, you must:

- Have resided in California for at least 5 years, and

SANTA CRUZ COUNTY LAW LIBRARY

701 Ocean Street, Rm. 070 Santa Cruz, CA 95060
831-420-2205 www.lawlibrary.org

- Meet the required rehabilitation time of between 2 and 5 years following the release from custody, probation, or parole.
- A certificate of rehabilitation issued on or after July 1, 2021, does not terminate the obligation to register as a sex offender. Relief must be requested under Penal Code section 290.5.

Penal Code 4852 et seq. goes into more detail about who is eligible and who is ineligible. These codes can be found online at <https://leginfo.legislature.ca.gov/faces/home.xhtml>

THE PROCESS

You file your request for the Certificate of Rehabilitation in the county where you currently reside, even if this is not where the conviction happened.

- Getting the forms: The forms are included in this packet. You can also find the forms online at <https://www.cdcr.ca.gov/bph/clemency/>.
 - You need the following three documents:
 - Petition for Certificate of Rehabilitation (Form 1)
 - Notice of Filing Petition for Certificate of Rehabilitation and Pardon and Declaration of Service (Form 2)
 - Certificate of Rehabilitation (Form 3)
- Fill out the Petition and Notice forms, but leave the date, time and department area blank on the Notice. A court date will be set when your paperwork is filed.

Make Copies

- Make additional copies of your paperwork.
 - You will need at least three copies of the Notice (Form 2)
 - You will need at least one copy of the Petition (Form 1)
- Bring the original and copies to Room 120 to file. There is no fee to file this request.
- The Clerk will assign a date that is about 6 weeks away.

Give Notice

After you file your documents and get a court date you must notify the District Attorney where you live and, if different, where each conviction occurred, at least 30 days before your court date. You do this by providing a copy of the Notice of Filing Petition for Certificate of Rehabilitation.

For the District Attorney's Office this may be done in person or by mail. Remember, you may need to serve multiple DA's offices.

Santa Cruz County District Attorney
701 Ocean Street, Room 200
Santa Cruz, CA 95060

By mail: Notice must be done by someone other than you who is at least 18 years old. The person you ask should mail a one copy of the Notice (Form 2) to each agency that you must notify. Then fill out the Affidavit of Service by Mail (page 2 of Form 2). This form needs to be notarized.

In Person: If the paperwork is being hand delivered, there is a space on page 3 of the form for the office that is receiving to fill out. You may deliver a copy to each office yourself.

After notice has been completed. The completed Affidavit(s) should be returned to Room 120 before your court date.

What Happens After Notice

- An investigation may be performed by the District Attorney's office regarding the petitioner's residence, criminal record, conduct during the required rehabilitation period, and any other information deemed necessary to make a determination on the Petition.
 - You may hire an attorney to assist you, or you may be entitled to representation from the Public Defender's Office regardless of financial need. 61 Ops. Cal. Atty. Gen. 181, Penal Code §4852.08
 - Show up at your scheduled hearing. Bring the Certificate of Rehabilitation (Order) with you.

831-420-2205 www.lawlibrary.org

What do I do after the hearing?

If the judge grants your petition, the Certificate of Rehabilitation (order) will be signed and processed. The court will then forward Certified Copies to the appropriate agencies.
If the judge denies your petition, there is nothing more to do.

FORM 1 INSTRUCTIONS

1. Obtain Your Criminal Records

To complete this form, you will need information regarding each of your felony convictions, including the date of each conviction, the specific charge or charges for which you were convicted, the county of the conviction, and the sentence that was given. In addition, you will need to know the date that you were released from prison or jail and/or discharged from parole or probation.

This information may be obtained through the court in which the conviction(s) took place, or you may obtain a copy of your state criminal record through the California Department of Justice. You may only obtain your own records from the Department of Justice. Information regarding this request may be obtained through the Office of the Attorney General website at <https://oag.ca.gov/fingerprints/record-review>. Regardless of the number of convictions, you will only need to file one petition.

2. Confirm Your Eligibility

You are ineligible for a certificate of rehabilitation if any of the following are true:

- You were convicted only of misdemeanors (other than sex offenses defined in Penal Code section 290, which were subsequently expunged) (Pen. Code, § 4852.01, subd. (b).)
- You were convicted of specific sex crimes involving minor children as enumerated under Penal Code sections 286, subd. (c), 288, 288a, subd. (c), 288.5, and 289, subd. (j). (Pen. Code, § 4852.01, subd. (c).)
- You are serving mandatory life parole. (Pen. Code, § 4852.01, subd. (c).)
- You were sent to state prison under a death sentence. (Pen. Code, § 4852.01, subd. (c).)
- You are currently in military service. (Pen. Code, § 4852.01, subd. (c).)

Minimum Period of Rehabilitation

In order to be granted a certificate of rehabilitation you must satisfy a minimum period of rehabilitation. In every case, you must have resided continuously for five years in this state prior to filing the petition. (Pen. Code, § 4852.06) The period of rehabilitation begins to run upon your discharge from custody or upon release on parole or probation, whichever is sooner. (Pen. Code, § 4852.03, subd. (a).) The period of rehabilitation shall constitute five years residence in this state, plus a period of time determined by the following rules:

- An additional four years in the case of any person convicted of violating section 187 (murder), 209 (aggravated kidnapping), 219 (derailing or wrecking a train), 4500 (assault with force likely to cause great bodily injury), or 12310 (use of explosives or destructive devices causing death, mayhem, or great bodily injury) of the Penal Code, or subdivision (a) of section 1672 of the Military and Veterans Code (acting or failing to act so as to cause another person's death), or any other offense which carries a life sentence. (Pen. Code, § 4852.03, subd. (a)(1).)
- An additional five years in the case of any person convicted of any offense or attempted offense for which sex offender registration is required pursuant to Penal Code section 290, except for convictions for violations of subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of section 311.2 (possession or distribution of media depicting a minor engaging in sexual conduct), or of section 311.3 (sexual exploitation of a child), 311.10 (advertising obscene matter depicting a minor engaging in sexual conduct), or 314 (indecent exposure). For those convictions, two years shall be added to the five years imposed by this section. (Pen. Code, § 4852.03, subd. (a)(2).)

- An additional two years in the case of any person convicted of committing an offense not listed above and which does not carry a life sentence. (Pen. Code, § 4852.03, subd. (a)(3).)
- Additionally, the trial court hearing your application for a certificate of rehabilitation may add additional years if you served consecutive sentences. The amount of additional time will not exceed the sum of the maximum penalties for all your crimes. (Pen. Code, § 4852.03, sub. (a)(4).)

Felony Probation

If you were released on felony probation and successfully completed probation, you must obtain relief under Penal Code section 1203.4 before applying for a Certificate of Rehabilitation.

3. File Your Documents

After completing the Petition for Certificate of Rehabilitation and Pardon, you must file it with the superior court in the county of conviction or in your county of residency. (Pen. Code, § 4852.06.)

- You are entitled to be represented by an attorney of your own selection, or by the public defender. (Pen. Code, § 4852.08.)
- You are entitled to receive assistance from all rehabilitative agencies including officers from adult probation and parole. (Pen. Code, § 4852.04)
- It is unlawful for anyone, other than an attorney, to accept any fee, money or anything of value for their services in representing you in this proceeding. (Pen. Code, § 4852.2.)
- You are not required to pay filing fees of any kind in connection with this proceeding. (Pen. Code, § 4852.09.)

4. Notice of Filing

When the court sets a hearing date on your petition, you are required to give notice of that date at least 30 days before the hearing. You must formally notify the district attorney for each county in which you have been convicted and the county in which the petition is filed. (Pen. Code, § 4852.07.) For more information on the notice requirements, please reference the Notice of Filing of Petition for Certificate of Rehabilitation and Pardon.

5. After a Certificate of Rehabilitation is Issued

A certificate of rehabilitation is not an automatic pardon; it is an application for a pardon. In the event that a certificate of rehabilitation is issued by a court, subject to criteria established by the Governor, the certificate of rehabilitation shall be reviewed by the Board of Parole Hearings within one year. Thereafter, the Board shall issue a recommendation as to whether the Governor should pardon that individual. (Pen. Code, § 4852.16, subd. (b).)

How to Apply for a Pardon

Individuals who have been convicted of a crime in California may apply to the Governor for a pardon. A gubernatorial pardon is an honor that may be granted to people who have demonstrated exemplary behavior following their conviction. A pardon will not be granted unless it has been earned. Obtaining a pardon is a distinct achievement based upon proof of a productive and law-abiding life following conviction. Historically, governors have granted very few pardons.

Applications generally will not be considered unless the applicant has been discharged from probation or parole for at least 10 years without further criminal activity during that period. There is no fee for applying for a pardon.

The Governor of California cannot grant a pardon for a conviction from another jurisdiction, such as another state or a federal proceeding. A person convicted in another state must apply for a pardon in that state. Federal pardon information may be obtained from the Pardon Attorney, U.S. Department of Justice, 500 First Street Northwest, Washington, D.C. 20530.

The Application Process

For most people, the first step in applying for a pardon is to obtain a Certificate of Rehabilitation from the Superior Court in the county where the applicant currently lives. People who live outside of California and people who are ineligible for a Certificate of Rehabilitation must use a direct pardon application. The procedure utilized will depend on the circumstances of each applicant.

1. Certificate of Rehabilitation

A Certificate of Rehabilitation is a court order declaring that a person convicted of a crime is now rehabilitated. Generally, any person convicted of a felony who still resides in California may apply to the Superior Court in the county where he or she lives for a Certificate of Rehabilitation, provided that the applicant meets the legal requirements of demonstrated rehabilitation. There are special rules that apply to individuals convicted of sex offenses.

An application for a Certificate of Rehabilitation can usually be obtained from the court clerk, probation department, or public defender's office. Once a petition is filed, the court may require an investigation by the district attorney and will schedule a hearing.

If the Court issues a Certificate of Rehabilitation, the certificate is forwarded to the Governor's Office where it automatically becomes an application for a pardon. The Governor's receipt of a Certificate of Rehabilitation does not guarantee that a pardon will be granted.

2. Direct Pardon

The direct pardon procedure is available to people who are ineligible for a Certificate of Rehabilitation. This procedure is used primarily by people who were convicted of a crime in California and now reside outside the state. The direct pardon procedure is also available to people who are not eligible for a Certificate of Rehabilitation because they have been convicted of specified sex offenses or misdemeanor offenses.

Applicants for a direct pardon may obtain the application either by accessing the Governor's website at www.gov.ca.gov, or by requesting an application in writing at the following address:

The applicant should first complete the Application for Executive Clemency. Then the applicant must send the Notice of Intent to Apply for Executive Clemency to the District Attorney of each county in which the applicant was convicted so that each District Attorney receives the legally-required notice. The District Attorney acknowledges receipt of the Notice of Intent and returns the notice to the Governor's Office. Finally, the applicant should return the completed application to the Governor's Office at the address listed above.

The Review Process

There is no requirement that the Governor take any action on an application for a pardon. Once a Certificate of Rehabilitation or a completed direct pardon application is received by the Governor's Office, the Office typically forwards the application to the Board of Parole Hearings (Board). The Board may conduct a background investigation and make a recommendation on whether a pardon should be granted. The Board may contact the District Attorney, investigating law enforcement agency, and other persons with relevant information on the applicant.

If the applicant has been convicted of more than one felony, the California Supreme Court must recommend granting a pardon before the Governor may do so. However, there is no obligation that the Governor seek a recommendation from the Supreme Court, in the first instance.

The length of time needed to complete the pardon process cannot be predicted. Once a completed application has been received by the Governor's Office, it is not necessary to contact the Governor's Office to check on the status of an application. If the Governor takes action on an application, the applicant will be notified. Applicants should notify the Governor's Office in writing if their mailing address changes.

Effect of a Pardon

A pardon does not seal the individual's criminal record or expunge the record of conviction, and the pardon is itself a public record. When a pardon is granted, the California Department of Justice and the Federal Bureau of Investigation are notified so that they may update their records on the applicant. The pardon is filed with the Secretary of State, reported to the Legislature, and is a public record. If a pardon is granted, the Certificate of Rehabilitation or the application for a direct pardon will be reported to the Legislature in an annual report and will become a public record. However, specific personal information will be redacted (hidden) before the Certificate of Rehabilitation or the application is made available to the public.

Please see the attached "Quick Reference for Restoration of Rights" for a detailed description of the effects of obtaining a Certificate of Rehabilitation and a pardon.
