FILED
APR -1 2020

ALEX CALVO, CLERK
BY
DEPUTY, SANTA CRUZ COUNTY

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF SANTA CRUZ

SECOND GENERAL ORDER RE: IMPLEMENTATION OF EMERGENCY RELIEF AUTHORIZED PURSUANT TO GOVERNMENT CODE SECTION 68115 AND BY THE 3/30/2020 STATEWIDE ORDER BY CHAIR OF JUDICIAL COUNCIL

Exercising the authority granted under Government Code section 68115 issued in response to the March 26, 2020 request for an emergency order made by the Superior Court of Santa Cruz County (“Court”), and the March 30, 2020 Statewide Emergency Order (“Statewide Order”) of Chief Justice Tani G. Cantil-Sakauye, Chair of the Judicial Council of California, this Court HEREBY FINDS AND ORDERS AS FOLLOWS:

1. For purposes of computing time under Penal Code section 825, and Welfare and Institutions Code sections 313, 315, 334, 631, 632, 637, and 657, from March 26, 2020 to April 24, 2020 are deemed holidays (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(5));
2. In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 26, 2020 to April 24, 2020, inclusive, any judge of the Court may extend the time periods provided in sections 583.310 and 583.320 of the Code of Civil Procedure to bring an action to trial by not more than 60 days (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(6));
3. Any judge of the Court may extend by not more than 15 days the duration of any temporary restraining order that would otherwise expire from March 26, 2020 to April 24, 2020 because the emergency condition described in the Order prevented the Court from conducting proceedings to determine whether a permanent order should be entered (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(7));

- 1           4. In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 17, 2020
2           to April 16, 2020, inclusive, any judge of the Court may extend the time period
3           provided in section 859b of the Penal Code for the holding of a preliminary
4           examination from 10 court days to not more than 15 court days (Gov. Code §
5           68115(a)(9));
- 6           5. In felony cases in which arraignment occurs after March 30, 2020 any judge of the 7           Court may extend the time period provided in section 859b of the Penal Code for the
8           holding of a preliminary examination, and the defendant's right to release, from 10
9           court days to not more than 30 court days. (Statewide Order of 3/30/2020);
- 10          6. In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 23, 2020
11          to May 30, 2020, inclusive, any judge of the Court may extend the time period
12          provided in section 1382 of the Penal Code for the holding of a criminal trial by not 13          more than 60 days (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(10) and Statewide Order of March 30, 14          2020);
- 15          7. Commencing March 30, 2020 any judge of the Court may extend the time period
16          provided in section 825 of the Penal Code within which a defendant charged with a
17          felony offense must be taken before a magistrate from 48 hours to not more than 7
18          days (Statewide Order of 3/30/2020);
- 19          8. In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 26, 2020
20          to April 24, 2020, inclusive, any judge of the Court may extend the time period
21          provided in section 313 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a minor
22          taken into custody pending dependency proceedings must be released from custody to 23          not more than 7 days (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(11));
- 24          9. In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 26, 2020
25          to April 24, 2020, inclusive, any judge of the Court may extend the time periods
26          provided in sections 632 and 637 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a
27          minor taken into custody pending wardship proceedings and charged with a felony
28          must be given a detention hearing or rehearing to not more than 7 days (Gov. Code,

1           § 68115(a)(11));

2           10. In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 26, 2020
3           to April 24, 2020, inclusive, any judge of the Court may extend the time periods
4           provided in sections 632 and 637 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a
5           minor taken into custody pending wardship proceedings and charged with a felony
6           must be given a detention hearing or rehearing to not more than 7 days (Gov. Code,
7           § 68115(a)(11));

8           11. In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 26, 2020
9           to April 24, 2020, inclusive, any judge of the Court may extend the time period
10           provided in section 334 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a hearing
11           on a juvenile dependency petition must be held by not more than 15 days (Gov. Code, 12           § 68115(a)(12)); and

13           12. In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 26, 2020
14           to April 24, 2020, inclusive, any judge of the Court may extend the time period
15           provided in section 657 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a hearing
16           on a wardship petition for a minor charged with a felony offense must be held by not
17           more than 15 days (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(12)).

18
19           THIS ORDER IS EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY.
